

Activity title: "Jigsaw puzzle, the Ocean linking people together"

JIGSAW PUZZLE

Orange pack of cards

Presented by: Anne VERNIER and contributors from Hauts-de-France 'Réseau Océan Mondial'

Proofread by: Jean-Guy HAGELSTEIN and Thomas HEMBERGER

Audience: Family

General goal of the activity: Get the participants to discover that the ocean link people together

Sequence and place	Specific goal	Message	Discovery process or activity	Learning style	Material or object to be shown	Length
Introduction after throwing the dice and showing the picture: "An Ocean that links us to others"	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> . Make the participants want to discover a service rendered by the Ocean. . Motivate all the participants. . Make them curious . Encourage questioning in the group 	Welcome! I want to help you discover the benefits that the Ocean brings for our wellbeing. We chanced on this face of the dice with orange. What does it evoke for you? Here is one of the first services the Ocean offers us. What is it?	Get one of the participants to throw the giant dice. Ask the participants about this "beneficial effect" of the Ocean. Start the jigsaw puzzle game. Jigsaw pieces with an orange border.	Playful Exchange of views	The dice + picture	30 sec
Presentation of the jigsaw puzzle	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> . Make the participants want to play the game to find the answers 	We are going to look at this together. There are several 3-piece mini jigsaws in this bag that we will reconstitute. I'm going to give you one each.	Hand out a jigsaw piece to everyone and let them complete the jigsaws puzzle.	Playful	Five 3-piece jigsaws (giving a total 15 pieces). One bag.	1 min
Imagine how the Ocean brings us together.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> . Present reliable information . Show the current limits on some of the things that link us (oil-powered sea transport + pollution caused by containers falling into the sea) . Highlight the positive initiatives concerning the new, more sustainable technologies used or that are currently being invented 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. When we phone someone on another continent, it's very often thanks to the cables laid on the bottom of the sea that we can communicate. 2. To go to another country, we can go by boat. Today, research is carried out so that these boats can use renewable sources of energy. 3. 80% of the goods that come from another country (international) are transported by ship (everything that is manufactured outside France, not to mention most of the exotic fruit that we eat, for example). It's thanks to the explorers who travelled by boat that we discovered new fruits and vegetables. 	Discover the completed jigsaws and comment on them gradually: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> .1 Technological link: Telephone/submarine cable/telephone. .2 Cultural and tourist links: Passengers in Europe/cruise ship or ferry/people who welcome guests in another country or on an island .3 Economic links: factory / container-ship / manufactured products "made in.. " in a home .4 Farming, gastronomic link: Shrimp farmer in Madagascar / Mr.Goodfish Restaurant / The restaurant's customers . 5 Link between researchers and our day-to-day wellbeing: International team of researchers / Renewable sea power/ Town lighting 			5 min

		4. The organic pink shrimps from Madagascar are produce of the sea that are raised in a sustainable way. When we eat them at home, we are supporting the local producers and we enjoy a delicious new product. 5. Scientists in many countries are working together to discover new molecules that will help to treat us, or new marine sources of energy (offshore tidal and wind turbines for example).
Conclusion	Sum up what we have just discovered in one key sentence.	The Ocean links people together; it allows us to discover new cultures, new ways of living, new consumer products, new ideas for experiencing a better relationship with the Ocean.				2 min
Openings to the other benefits	. Invite the participants to discover other benefits offered by the Ocean	Realise that the Ocean also brings us many other benefits for our wellbeing!	Show the other posters on display or the other sides of the dice and invite participants to discover a new benefit of the Ocean.	Affective	Posters on display.	5 sec

